

Social Worker

Do you like making a difference in people's lives? Are you looking for an organization where you can put your competencies to good use while having fun at work? Would you like the chance to learn about and work with the military community (military members, families, veterans)? If you answered yes to these questions, you are the person we are looking for! The Valcartier Family Centre would like to have you on its team to entrust you with short-term sessions for individuals, couples, and families while working in close collaboration with neighbouring military and civilian resources.

What is the Valcartier Family Centre? It is an organization that supports the military community by offering various intervention or psychosocial support services, employment assistance, services for children (occasional daycare), youth services (youth workers for 12 to 17 year olds), and volunteering.

The Centre's Values:

- Respect
- Equity
- Transparency
- Quality
- Innovation

Advantages of working at the Centre:

- Wide variety of cases
- Continuing education (in-house and external training)
- Initiative encouraged
- Flexible schedules
- Autonomy
- Cross-sector projects

Benefits offered to the team:

- A work environment based on caring leadership
- Possibility to work remotely
- Possibility to bank work hours
- 12 public holidays
- Summer hours

- Insurance after 3 months
- Cohesion committee
- Possibility to work out nearby at a reduced rate
- Cycling path nearby
- Access to a shower at the Centre

What we are offering for this position:

- Hours: 35h/week
- Location: Valcartier Family Centre (10 minutes from Val-Bélair)
- Start date: As soon as possible
- Salary: $28.81/hour

Experience required for the position:

- Experience offering short-term counselling for individuals, couples, and families
- Group intervention experience
- Experience in a community setting (an asset)
- Use of a community approach and preventive vision in one's practice
- Effective interpersonal skills and strong team player
- Ability to work in an adaptable, autonomous, and resourceful manner
- Strong organizational skills and ability to set priorities

Academic and professional requirements for the position:

- Bachelor's degree in Social Work
- Member of the professional order (OTSTCFQ)
- At least two (2) years relevant experience providing short-term services for individuals, families and, couples
- Availability to work two (2) evenings a week
- Fluent in English and French, oral and written (capacity to conduct interviews in English)
- Knowledge of the military lifestyle (an asset)

Send your résumé and cover letter to the VFC Human Resources Department at RH.CRFMV@outlook.com no later than Sunday November 24th 2019.

Please note that only applicants selected for an interview will be contacted.

