

Deployment Group Leader

Are you looking for a new challenge, do you want to make a difference by working with military families, all while having fun at work as part of a SUPER TEAM of colleagues? If so, the Valcartier Family Centre is right for you! Come join a multidisciplinary team of over 60 people offering various services to the community based on their needs. The Centre is made up of six sectors: Absence and Mobility, Psychosocial Intervention, Veteran Support (new), Employment Assistance, Childhood and Youth Services, and Community Volunteering.

In order to replace group leaders who have moved on to other internal positions within the Centre, The Valcartier Family Centre is looking for two Deployment Group Leaders who want to make a difference in the lives of military families in the Quebec region. Your role would be to lead and supervise groups of children who are experiencing the prolonged absence of a parent (OASIS Club and Dealing with Absence: Like a Boss). Through games and activities, the facilitator's goal is to get the children to open up to each other and express how the absence of their parent is affecting them. If you are looking for a part-time job where you can grow within the organization, don't let this opportunity pass you by, send us your CV to join our team.

The Centre's Values:
